NAHAD

NAHAD Portal

We are making improvements to the NAHAD member portal to provide a more streamlined and user-friendly experience. These updates will make it easier to access key resources, manage your membership, and engage with NAHAD programs and events.

The enhanced portal will be available the second week of July. We appreciate your patience as we complete these upgrades and look forward to delivering a more efficient and improved member experience. Look for more information to come on how to update your login and enhance your member profile.

For immediate assistance, please contact us at info@nahad.org.

Meet Your 2026 Board

Take a look at one of our latest LinkedIn posts introducing the 2026 NAHAD Board of Directors. We are proud to highlight this exceptional group of industry leaders who are helping guide the future of the hose and hose accessories industry.

These individuals bring a wealth of experience, insight, and dedication to NAHAD and the broader industry. Their leadership will play a key role in advancing member value, supporting industry standards, and driving continued growth and innovation across the association.

Help Shape NAHAD's Next AI Webinar Series

NAHAD

AI SERIES

NAHAD is exploring the development of a webinar series focused on practical applications of artificial intelligence. As AI continues to evolve, we want to ensure the content we deliver is relevant, actionable, and aligned with the needs of NAHAD members.

To help guide this effort, we are asking for your input on the topics and use cases that would be most valuable to your organization. Your feedback will directly shape the structure and focus of this upcoming series, ensuring it reflects real-world priorities across the industry.

Leadership Resiliency in Uncertain Economic Times

July 8, 1:00 PM EST

Organizations are facing difficult decisions amid ongoing economic uncertainty, including workforce reductions, cost pressures, margin challenges, and shifting customer expectations. Leaders are often under the greatest strain, tasked with protecting productivity and revenue while taking on additional responsibilities as organizations adapt.

In times of change and high stress, resilience becomes one of a leader's most valuable skills. This session will define Leadership Resiliency, provide a practical framework for creating personal Resilience Action Plans, and offer a safe space for participants to discuss challenges and ask tough questions.
